Why do Educational Institutions require insurance

There is a lot at risk for educational institutions. Assets (buildings, furniture & fixture, electronic equipment) are expensive to replace. Motor vehicles are mandatorily required to be insured. Liabilities arising in course of management of an institution can adversely impact the reputation of an institution as also the financials. Staff and students are precious and need to be looked after in terms of healthcare and accidents. It is, therefore, necessary that all educational institutions take insurance covers to avoid adverse financial implications.

What can we do for you

Drawing from our rich experience and deep knowledge in the field of insurance, we will identify / review your insurances. The objective is to develop a purely need-based insurance program for an educational institution.

- Risk Coverage: We will review your current insurance policies, compare the same with the actual requirements, prepare a variance analysis and recommend as to which insurances you should opt for.
- Exclusions: All perils and scenarios which are excluded in your current policies shall be reviewed by us for their appropriateness and the exclusions which are critical to the insurance coverage required, shall be bought back.
- Add-on covers & Extensions: There are number of add-on covers which are over and above the basic policy and impact the quantum of claims in various ways. Some of these add-on covers and extensions are free and some involve payment of premium. We will ascertain the need for such covers and extensions and advise you appropriately to make your insurance coverages fuller.
- Clauses, conditions, warranties: All insurance policies are subject to multiple clauses, conditions and warranties which impact admissibility of losses as also the extent of claims payment. We will examine applicability of these to your insurance policies so as to complement the basic insurance coverage.
- Broad inputs on valuation: It is always a vexing question as to what value to insure for. Selection of a method for choosing insured values has a direct impact on the extent of payment of claims. We will advise you on the most appropriate method and offer our inputs to avoid under-insurance or over-insurance.
